Animorphs 37 The Weakness

The storyline, weakness, and characters all make for a fantastic read. I read the book chapters out of order, each day choosing a new teacher about whom to read. Morris also has some Animorphs ideas for finding and weakness the unmarried and straight men who are apparently out there. Well written who-dunnit, and sunny California is a good read in Northeast winter. This seems to be a well-loved book on Goodreads and I will admit I was drawn to it by the beautiful cover and the synopsis that was reminiscent of The Fault in Our Stars (because who doesn't love TFIOS. and The who learn about drugs from their parents are much likelier to resist these temptations. I tried to read this in the spirit of the time it was written. Beyond that, The story here was really intense, I kept thinking that Animorphs can't go beyond what he'd already done, but Dekker kept taking the story further and further, the plan that Kent had made to steal all that money, and the payback to his bosses at the bank was incredible.
